

ABSTRACT

Crystals of lipocalin-type prostaglandin D synthase are produced and analyzed by X-ray diffratometry to give the 5 three dimensional structure of enzyme based on which an inhibitor of the enzyme can be designed and selected.